Walter Holt Elected to Board of Directors for Raleigh-Durham Chapter of BOMA

RALEIGH, N.C. (June 30, 2009) -- Grubb & Ellis|Thomas Linderman Graham, a leading Triangle real estate services firm, announced today that Walter Holt, senior property manager, has been elected to the board of directors for the Raleigh-Durham chapter of the Building Owners and Managers Association.

Holt has been a member of BOMA since 1985 and served as the inaugural president of the Raleigh-Durham chapter. He has been an instructor for BOMA International for 15 years and holds the designations of Real Property Administrator and Facility Management Administrator, conferred by the organization.

Holt has been a member of the Grubb & Ellis|Thomas Linderman Graham property management team since 2004. He provides comprehensive management services for a portfolio of office buildings throughout the Triangle area, focusing on providing excellent service to owners and tenants.

Holt is a licensed real estate broker in the state of North Carolina. He holds a bachelor's degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

BOMA International was founded in 1907. Today BOMA International represents 92 local associations throughout the United States and 13 international affiliates. BOMA International is a primary source of information on office building development, leasing, building operating costs, energy consumption patterns, local and national building codes, legislation, occupancy statistics and technological developments.
