Todd Harrelson and Julie Harvin of Grubb & Ellis|Thomas Linderman Graham Awarded CCIM Designation

RALEIGH, N.C. (Nov. 10, 2010) -- Grubb & Ellis|Thomas Linderman Graham, a leading Triangle real estate services firm, announced today that Todd Harrelson and Julie Harvin have been awarded the Certified Commercial Investment Member designation by the CCIM Institute®.

Harrelson and Harvin join an elite group of commercial real estate specialists who have attained an expert level of knowledge and experience. Recognized throughout North America and 30 other countries as the pinnacle of achievement for commercial and investment specialists, the CCIM designation is awarded to CCIM members who meet rigorous requirements and curriculum.

Harrelson is a key member of the company's retail team, providing strategic services to retail investors, owners and tenants throughout the Triangle and North Carolina. He has more than 21 years of experience in project leasing, management, strategic planning, development and financial analysis.

Harvin joined Grubb & Ellis|Thomas Linderman Graham in 2004 and is a senior property manager. She provides comprehensive management services for an extensive portfolio of Class A and Class B office buildings throughout the Triangle area, focusing on providing excellent service to owners and tenants.

The CCIM designation was established in 1969. This designation process ensures that CCIMs are proficient not only in theory, but also in practice. Only 6 percent of the estimated 150,000 commercial real estate practitioners nationwide hold the CCIM designation. Recognized for its preeminence within the industry, the CCIM curriculum represents the core knowledge expected of commercial investment advisors, including four core courses of financial analysis, market analysis, user decision analysis and investment analysis for commercial investment real estate.
