

Gina Ide, CPM
Senior Vice President, Asset & Property Management
Principal, Board of Advisers
919.420.1578, direct
gina.ide@tlgcre.com

RESPONSIBILITY ON THE TEAM

Gina leads the Grubb & Ellis|Thomas Linderman Graham Property Management team in providing superior service to the Company's clients and tenants. From maintenance to tenant retention, Gina is responsible for overseeing the business plans that build asset value and help Grubb & Ellis|Thomas Linderman Graham's clients reach their ownership objectives.

CAREER SUMMARY

Gina is a Certified Property Manager® who brings over 20 years of commercial and corporate real estate experience to Grubb & Ellis|Thomas Linderman Graham. She has managed institutional assets for owners such as Travelers, Paragon/Insignia, Sun Life of Canada, RREEF, Great West, Liberty Mutual and Lincoln National as well as the portfolios of many private investors. She is experienced in a broad range of commercial properties, including Class A high-rise and suburban office buildings, multi-use development, retail, warehouse and light industrial. Gina's corporate real estate background includes managing real estate assets for one of St. Louis' largest employers with over 11 million square feet of corporate and retail real estate. Gina also led a diverse consulting team in the development of a real estate master plan for a Fortune 100 company. During her career, Gina has had direct responsibility for the management of over 10 million square feet of investment real estate.

EDUCATION AND AFFILIATIONS

- Duke University – Bachelor of Arts degree, Public Policy Sciences and Religion, Magna Cum Laude
- Licensed Real Estate Broker, North Carolina

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- Member, Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM)
- Member, IREM Executive Council
- Certified Property Manager® (CPM)